Character Education: Honesty

HONESTY is telling the truth and being truthful. Honesty means you're not lying or being dishonest about something. When you cheat on a test, you're not being an honest person. Sometimes, being honest can be hard. You may be afraid that telling the truth may get you in trouble, but telling the truth shows that you're an honest person that people trust.

QUESTIONNAIRE: Answer the questions below by putting a ☒ check.

	NEVER	SOMETIMES	ALWAYS
1) I tell the truth at home and at school.
2) I have cheated on a test or quiz before.
3) I tell the truth even though I may get in trouble.

REFLECTION: Answer the questions below.

1. Name one way we can show HONESTY at home.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?: In your group, discuss a solution to these situations.

1. You are playing ball inside your house when no one is around. You accidentally threw the ball at your mom's picture frames, and one cracks. No one would know you cracked it. Your mom comes home and sees it cracked. What would you do?

2. Your dad says that if you pass your Math test you'll get to go to your friend's birthday party. Test day comes, but you didn't study. Your classmate next to you studied, and you can see her test. If you copy her test, you'll pass the Math test. What would you do?
